

TEXT & IMAGE

edited by Elisa Scholz
and Glynnis Maynard

The Archaeological Review from Cambridge is a biannual journal of archaeology. It is run on a non-profit, voluntary basis by postgraduate researchers at the University of Cambridge. Although primarily rooted in archaeological theory and practice, the ARC invites a wide range of perspectives with the aim of establishing a strong, interdisciplinary journal which will be of interest to a variety of fields.

Acknowledgements

We would like to sincerely thank Professor Robin Osborne for his insightful comments on early drafts of our introduction and Sergio G. Russo for his proofreading edits. We would also like to extend our thanks to all those who offered to peer review our papers and to members of the ARC committee during the editing process. We thank you all for your time and your commitment. Finally, we would like to thank Livia De Simone and Simone Ignazio Russo for their creative talent in crafting our volume cover and issue design.
