6666.111111111111111111155
（134）Orange／brainy fill feature
S－J was hand to define edges nat clear－base not clear Contained large stones－ 1 large stone left against edge 0，it was deeply set
Sides very sloping
Small mosel shell near bare
$139^{C L T} 163$－Wind－Not CUT
（139）feature got a lot lager
S－J alter initial identification
－Lager shallow hallow－uneven
F Sloping sides and base．Contained of small Pecks of charcoal and tarerees ot orange bunt clay－每 sunila to 138 but more shallow， Fut orange de k br own／beige crumbly
(137) Straight sided slat/ ph
$S-5$ contained small but of bonespecks and maul Lumps of char coal-Alecks of bunt clay, daub. Fill dark brawn 'sticky' + in m sherd Intially excavated and thought to be be small - arcular shallow fedture almost abutting wall - Secondary huertigation shaved the feature was lager and deeper
166666611.1011 .1111111
(148) - Removed central four stores inside circular grays of stones - fill started beise/broun then went down to douce braun with hrequent chouc al and red burt I clay specks. Once this was removed an arange/red fut with chalk specks was reveals Then finally a darke braun with chalk / charcoal speck

- Pott-pipe 'socket' gat slightly, narrower toward the base it chalk. No fuds
$2 / 3$ bucket fill sample

(144) But He Hey HEN Ma Heats

- Took this context af with pick axe
Uneven base famed of chalk lumps and small gravel lizedlump (d) ot 'sticky' orange/drk brown soil forming some space between chalk
Some ch large chalk lumps wee rounded and looked wain-some more 'hest/jagged' in apppearana - fill sticky containing frequent large chalk I umps

